

Best Friends

By Norma McClain

Chol and Cella have always been the very best friends. They depend on one another and are inseparable. They both like it that way. They talk constantly, and know that they will be best friends forever.

Chol is the dominant one with magical rays that she sends to her friend. Her colors are beautiful, some red, some green, even a bright yellow. Cella loves the red ray. It gives her so much energy. But she is happy with whatever Chol sends on any particular day. Cella knows that Chol will choose exactly the right ray that she needs. Cella is the needy one.

One day Cella became very ill. She was so weak and tired. She cried out to Chol, "I need more red rays. I didn't get any today."

Chol was distressed because she knew she had sent a bunch of red rays to her friend. What could have happened? Cella always received her red rays before. What had changed? Chol did not know what to do.

Cella kept getting weaker and weaker, and Chol realized that her friend was dying. She tried to send more red rays but for some reason they were stopped, they couldn't get through.

That's when Chol saw Ester laughing, and she knew right away that Ester had blocked her wonderful rays. Ester was jealous and mean spirited. She didn't have a friend because she didn't know how to be a friend. She was hateful and destructive, and just kept attacking Chol's rays breaking them down and destroying them.

"Hold on Cella. I have another friend who can help us. His name is Ari, and he is very strong. He will know how to get rid of Ester".

When Ari came, he brought with him a very bright white light. It blinded Ester and she ran away to hide.

As soon as Ester was gone, Chol immediately sent volumes of gorgeous red rays to Cella. And it was just in time as Cella felt energy coming back to her. Chol was so smart. Cella knew her friend would find a way to save her.

Ari stayed with them and became a friend and their protector.
