

PENN Special Delivery

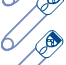

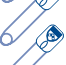

Is there a baby in your future?

If so, we want to make your birth experience extra special by inviting you to join PENN Special Delivery.

PENN Special Delivery is a prenatal membership program originally designed for employees and spouses of the University of Pennsylvania and the University of Pennsylvania Health System. Others are now eligible for membership, including employees and spouses of The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia and the Wistar Institute, and students and spouses of the University of Pennsylvania and Drexel University.

Registration for the program is necessary prior to your delivery.

Call as soon as you know that you are pregnant so that you don't miss out on any amenities. There is no reimbursement for services received prior to enrollment in the program. PENN Special Delivery members receive:

-  Free childbirth education classes, parenting classes and sibling classes
-  First priority for a complimentary private room
-  No personal balance billing of co-pays for obstetrical and anesthesiology fees not covered by your insurance
-  Free television and basic telephone service during your hospital stay
-  Parking discount for admission and discharge
-  Prenatal appointments on campus or in Radnor
-  Free beeper for dad during the ninth month of pregnancy
-  Free pregnancy, childbirth and maternal health newsletter
-  Individualized pre-pregnancy counseling
-  Gifts for you and your baby

Call 1-800-789-PENN (7366)

to confirm your eligibility and find out if your health benefits enable you to come to the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania.
