Patient Care
The resident is expected to be competent at:
- Efficiently managing surgical clinic

The resident is expected to be proficient at:
- Supervising junior residents in performing bedside and operative procedures
- Peri-operative and intra-operative management of patients with complex surgical disease including advanced hepatobiliary disease, pancreatic disease, thoracic malignancies, and major abdominal, thoracic and peripheral vascular reconstructions

Medical Knowledge
The resident should understand:
- Evaluation, diagnosis, work-up and management of patients presenting with general surgical, thoracic and vascular disease

Practice Based Learning and Improvement
The resident should demonstrate the ability to:
- Critically evaluate published literature regarding diseases managed on the service, and formulate evidenced-based therapeutic plan
- Analyze the surgical complications on the service, and present that at the Morbidity and Mortality conference in a constructive and educational manor
- Take considerable initiative in facilitating the learning of junior housestaff and medical students

Interpersonal and Communication Skills
The resident is expected to demonstrate the ability to:
- Collegially discuss patient care issues with Faculty in formulating and instituting therapeutic plans
- Effectively counsel patients, especially with regard to end of life issues

Professionalism
The resident should:
- Be receptive to feedback on performance
- Demonstrate attentiveness to ethical issues
- Demonstrate sensitivity to gender, age, race, and cultural issues
- Demonstrate leadership

Systems Based Practice
The resident should demonstrate:
- Ability to effectively and efficiently organize the care of the trauma patient in a cost-effective and evidenced-based manner.
• Ability to appropriately recruit other specialists and healthcare professionals to optimize the efficiency of care of the high risk surgical patient.